

“iDeclare”

Welcome to iChurch. Today we are continuing our look at how God is calling us to be as the church by focusing on what He is calling us to say. Last week we looked at how we need to engage the world around us and now we are going to take the next step into what we are too declare when we do engage the world around us.

We have a message of _____ importance to declare to the world around us.

It is to be declared in _____ by _____ and by a _____.

The Spirit allowed the apostles to declare it in a _____ that everyone understood.

We are tasked with declaring it in a _____ that the hearer can understand.

Peter uses _____ references for the crowd that he is declaring to.

He declares these basic truths about Jesus:

He _____ Old Testament prophecy

He _____

He _____ death

He _____ with us

He gives _____

He _____ us

He calls us to _____ and follow Him

He _____ us into community

To declare the truth:

No _____

No _____ the message

No _____

You don't have to be a preacher or pastor to declare this message. You just have to be willing to declare the truth in love and in a context that is understandable and trust that the Spirit of God is working in the hearts and lives of those who are hearing the message.

NEW RSY Series—"Not That Into You"—Feb. 3 to Mar. 2

Every one of us has experienced it at some point. At one time, we were really into a relationship. Whether that's a friendship or a dating relationship, and now, well, not so much—we're just not that into it anymore. So we walk away or we let the relationship die. But what happens when that relationship you're not that into anymore is the one you have with God? You were really into Him at one point. You were feeling connected, directed, close. Now it feels like nothing. How do you deal with it?
